

Colorado Springs regularly tops "best of," "most in the country" lists

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. –

From the happiest to the funniest, Colorado Springs makes just about every “best for” and “most in the country” list.

In just the last six months, the city has been listed as one of the best places for business and careers, least expensive cities for beer drinkers, best cities for women entrepreneurs, top 10 coffee-crazed cities, most romantic, happiest, most patriotic, among others.

“I think it gives residents some pride to be able to say, ‘Hey, you know what, I think this is a great place, but so do others,’” said Doug Price, President and CEO of the Colorado Springs Convention & Visitors Bureau.

The city website lists some of the lists the Colorado Springs has landed on in the last several years. You can find it here. What other lists do you think the city belongs on?
